

In Memoriam
Mark Levy, Esq.

It is with great sadness that Block45 Legal, LLC says goodbye our of council Mark Levy. He passed away on October 30, 2021.

Mr. Levy was passionate about his voice in Colorado intellectual property law. His experience in intellectual property has protected individuals, universities, and corporations, giving all that worked with him peace of mind. His ability to foster that feeling of trust will be a long-standing testament to his abilities as a lawyer.

Mark earned his Bachelor of Science in physics Polytechnic Institute of New York (formerly Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn). After graduating, he moved to Colorado and worked as a technical writer for Hewlett Packard in Loveland and then Digital Equipment Corp. in Massachusetts. In 1975, he was admitted to New York Law School, where he earned his Doctor of Law degree. He is a patent attorney, registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and has drafted and filed more than 1,000 patent applications and more than 500 trademark applications in the U.S. and in foreign countries. In 2006, he was admitted to Wilkes University in Pennsylvania, where he earned a Masters Degree in creative writing.

Mr. Levy will be missed by the listeners of the Weekend Radio, a public radio show that Mark would write and broadcast comedic essays. His work as a contributing editor for Videomaker magazine and the Journal of Irreproducible Results will also be missed.

Everyone at Block45 Legal will miss Mark, his passing will leave a long lasting hole in the fabric of the firm.
